

SUCCESS

“Support, Utilizing Career Choices Ensuring Student Success”

2018

Black History Month Black Tie Gala

Dinner, Music, Speakers, Presentations

A fund-raising event to benefit the BCCC Men of Success and provide scholarships for minority males at Beaufort County Community College.

EVENT SPEAKER:

John “JJ” Evans, PhD
Associate Director of Student Life
North Carolina Community College System

Evans was previously Academic Support Specialist at Alamance Community College. Prior to then he was Assistant Director of Residential Life and Fraternity and Sorority Affairs for Stetson University and Assistant Director of Residence Life at Queens University of Charlotte.

He earned his Bachelors and Masters degrees from Clemson University and his PhD from N.C. State.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2018

BCCC Campus Building 10

Doors open at 5:30 pm – Event at 6:30 pm through 8:30 pm

$20 per person – $35 per couple

All tickets must be purchased by February 19, 2018. There will be no paying at the door. Seating is limited.

Tickets Available From: All Men Of Success Coaches • St. Clair Trucking, Washington NC
Teresa Edwards, BCCC Student Support • MOS, BCCC Building 1 Room 111.

BEAUFORT COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE
MEN OF SUCCESS

For more information call 252-623-8326 or 252-940-6250
or email griffwood42@gmail.com or pastorcfwc@gmail.com