Grievance Procedures for Students with Disabilities Procedure

Students who believe that they have been discriminated against because of a disability by any of the College's personnel, have the right to seek a review of such concerns through the following process:

- A. The student must notify the coordinator of accessibility services for review.
- B. If the student is not satisfied with the outcome of the meeting with the coordinator of accessibility services, the student will meet with the director of counseling.
- C. If the student is not satisfied with the outcome of the meeting with the director of counseling, the student may appeal the decision in writing to the Americans with disabilities act coordinator/vice president of student services.
- D. The vice president of student services will follow the College Student Rights and Due Process.
