

Policy 1.08

Naming Policy

Beaufort County Community College (the “College”) finds it beneficial to seek private funds to help meet its stated mission and objectives. The College encourages all constituency groups to promote philanthropic endeavors for the benefit of BCCC. In order to accomplish this goal, the College endeavors to provide appropriate recognition to those who make generous contributions, monetarily or otherwise. The Board of Trustees, at the recommendation of the President, may approve naming of facilities and programs for donor recognition. Facilities applies to buildings, rooms, courts, open spaces, and any/all other areas or properties owned or controlled by the College.
